NEVER COME SINGLY

Democratic City Committee's Troubles Multiply.

Six of the Smith Men Held a Meeting
Last Evening on Legal Now.

CHAIRMAN SAYS WAS ILLEGAL

The trouble in the Democratic city committee seems to become more complicated. There is now open rebellion, and while seven members of the committee, or alleged members of the committee, refused to hear the J. H. Smith contest night before last, a meeting of other members was held last night and it was decided to hear the contest, the claim being that two of the members allowed to vote at the meeting Thursday night were not members and had no right to vote.

Messrs. Morrison, Lang, Lydon, Pieper, Mitchell and Berryman met last night at Sheriff Potter's office and former Mayor Lang was chosen to preside. These gentlemen claim they petitioned City Chairman R. G. Caldwell to call a meeting for 7:30 o'clock last night, which he declined to do on account of having insufficient time in which to notify the members. The six members above then called the meeting themselves.

Mr. Morrison, chairman of the county committee, stated when the meeting was called to order last night, that state central committeeman Whittemore had never forwarded the appointments of Messrs. Casper Jones and Harry Savage, they were not members of the committee and Mr. James Glauber had moved from his precinct, leaving three vacancies and only ten members, of the county committee, the six present constituting a quorum.

Those present adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the city Democratic committee held a meeting last night, September 24, 1903, and at said meeting Casper Jones and Harry Savage were sworn in as committeemen from Diggel's precinct and Rogers' precinct respectively without first presenting their credentials, and did take part in said meeting, a majority of said committee, do hereby declare that part of the meeting in which they participated to be null and void, and that all acts at said meeting be declared null and void, and that the committee do now take up the matter of J. Henry Smith's contest against M. W. Johnson for the nomination of city treasurer.

The following was subsequently adopted:

Resolved, That when the committee adjourns tonight that it does so to meet Tuesday, September 29, 1903, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. at the city hall, and that the chair appoint a committee of two to wait on Chairman R. G. Caldwell, and request him to have ballot boxes, keys and all other things necessary to properly conduct said contest before the committee at that time and place, and that the secretary notify all members of the city Democratic committee to be present, also the contestant and contestee with their attorneys, and that the ballots be, and the contest shall be conducted as follows, to wit: That the ballot boxes be opened precinct by precinct, and the ballots canvassed for the office of city treasurer only, and in the presence of the contestant, contestee and their attorneys, if present, and the public. And, it is further ordered that if upon examination of any particular ballot box there shall appear to have been irregularities in the conduct of the primary election at such precinct, the committee shall deal with such precinct in such way as may be defined by the law.

Chairman Lang then appointed Messrs. Lydon and Morrison on the committee and the meeting adjourned.

Colonel R. G. Caldwell, chairman of the city Democratic committee, stated this morning that the meeting last night in which Committeemen Lydon, Berryman, Lang, Morrison, Pieper and Mitchell attempted to act as a committee to act on the J. H.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD

Clearings this week $689,109.29
Same week last year, $618,353
Increase, 70,756.29

Business this week has been much improved over the preceding weeks.

Smith contest suit, was illegal and that only two members of the committee were present, the latter four having resigned the night before.

"I understand that those gentlemen claim six is a quorum," he stated, "but there is but one committee man who has moved and he is James Glauber, leaving a membership of twelve, counting those four who resigned, and even at this only six were present last night and it requires seven to constitute a quorum."

"I will call the committee together at the earliest convenient time on business and the vacancies caused by the resignations of Committeemen Lang, Pieper, Mitchell and Morrison will be filled."

Colonel Caldwell is rather inclined to look upon the meeting last night as a farce and stated that he supposed there were several soreheads resulting from the deciding vote he cast in the meeting which dismissed the Smith contest suit, but that he had voted for what he thought was right.

Information has been received that Secretary Leslie M. Shaw, of the United States treasury, would come to Kentucky on October 15, and remain in the state through October 20. The information, which came in a letter from John W. Yerkes, immediately led the campaign committee at Louisville to make plans for speaking appointments for Secretary Shaw.

An effort will be made to have him make one speech each day he is in the state. He will speak at Louisville, Owensboro, Lexington and at two other of the larger cities in the state, if suitable arrangements can be made.

Secretary Shaw is said to be one of the best stump speakers in the country, and it is believed that his visit to Kentucky will be of much value to the Republican ticket.

Commissioner Yerkes will come to Kentucky from Washington with Secretary Shaw. He will accompany him on his swing through the state, and will make speeches at each of the cities where Secretary Shaw speaks.

Mr. Yerkes will remain in the state until after the election in November.

Attorney John G. Lovett and L. K. Taylor have decided on a list of appointments in their canvass for commonwealth's attorney of the district. They speak in Marshall county first and in this county the latter part of October. There will be three debates in Paducah, one at Gellman's the 26th; at Broadfoot's the 30th, and at the city hall November 2.

A CHAPTER WAS ORGANIZED
THIS MORNING HERE.

The Alexander Faris chapter of the M. E. Bruce children of the Confederacy was organized this morning at the residence of Mrs. Victoria Thompson on Jefferson street, by Mrs. Roy McKinney, with a membership of twenty-five. The chapter was named for Dr. Alexander Allen Faris, of Hickman, Mrs. McKinney's father, who was a brave confederate soldier and was wounded in the battle of Perryville.

The following officers were elected: Miss Elizabeth Seebree president, Miss Saidee Smith treasurer, Miss Mildred Soule, secretary and Miss Martha Cope historian. Other officers will be elected at the next meeting of the chapter next Saturday morning at Mrs. Thompson's residence. Meetings will be held one Saturday in each month.

Any child who had a grandfather, great grandfather, uncle or great uncle in the Confederate army is eligible to membership.

NO INDEPENDENT TICKET.

A PROHIBITION FIGHT IS ALSO TALKED OF.

A prominent member of the Good Government league is authority for the statement that there will be no independent ticket for Mayor or any of the city offices put out by the league in the coming election. He said:

"It is not our purpose to become leaders in any political movement in the interest of any man or set of men on an independent platform. We will fight issues and what we believe official negligence on the part of those in power. If we do not succeed in getting laws enforced regulating the whiskey traffic, a prohibition fight will be inaugurated in the near future."

WHO'S THE JOKE ON?

THE TOWN COW GETS RID OF HER BELL SLICK.

Last night a cow got into the backyard of Mr. A. L. Joynes' residence, South Fourth street, and kept him awake the greater part of the night by the continual ringing of a large bell hung around the bovine's neck. He finally got up and ran the cow out, but she repeatedly returned, and early in the morning he was awakened by the cow this time directly under his window with the bell. He got up took the bell off, and retired again. The owner can secure the bell by calling on Mr. Joynes.

Mr. Mike Griffin went to Louisville today.

LYNCHED PRISONER

Handed.

Quite a Sensation Created at Lynchburg, Near Nashville, Tenn.

ILLINOIS MAYOR INDICTED

WILL GO HARD WITH THEM.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 26.—Seven men are in jail at Lynchburg charged with lynching Allen Small Thursday. Small was taken from the jail to the courthouse yard, there beaten with clubs and then shot to death.

A crowd of 25 men visited the jail shortly before midnight and demanded the keys to the cell in which Allen Small, a negro, was incarcerated. Sheriff G. R. Davidson had no intimation of any contemplated violence, and was alone at the time. He peremptorily refused to accede to the demand, and immediately opened fire on the would-be lynchers and succeeded in wounding one of them, who was taken off by his friends. At the same time the sheriff called lustily for assistance.

Two of the police and several citizens rushed to the jail but before they arrived the mob had succeeded in battering down the wooden door at the foot of the stairs leading to the corridor. The sheriff and his posse made a stout resistance, but were unable to prevent the mob from breaking in the iron door at the head of the stairs and entering the cell occupied by the negro, about whose neck they placed a rope. As soon as the men emerged from the cell it became apparent that the negro could not be taken from the jail and hung and he was shot and instantly killed.

The mob then made an effort to escape, but the sheriff and his guards succeeded in holding seven of them.

Allen Small was arrested several weeks ago for an alleged attempt to assault Mrs. Eliza Eggleston and on preliminary hearing the warrant against him was amended by the prosecution so as to charge a simple case of assault.

THE MAYOR INDICTED.

Mattoon, Ill., Sept. 26.—Mayor Francis M. Menke of Mattoon was indicted by a grand jury on 29 counts charging him with malfeasance and misfeasance in office. He was arrested and bond was fixed at $2,500. One of the charges against Menke is that he entered into a conspiracy with Dr. Pinkstaff to secure money from the demise of Mattoon. It is said that the physician divided fees for weekly physical examination certificates with the mayor. Mayor Menke is accused of entering into contracts with gaming houses, immoral places and Sunday saloons.

NEWS OF THE STATE

Moonshiners Fire on the Salvation Army.

Fulton Attorney Leaves for Arizona—
Deaths and Marriages in Kentucky.

HOPKINS COUNTY DAMAGESUIT

THEY DIDN'T TARRY.

Whitesburg, Ky., September 26.—The Salvation army cavalry corps under Colonel Richard Holtz of Cleveland and Major Hunter of Cincinnati, left here today for Wise courthouse. They had not gone far before they met with a thrilling experience, and one which they will not soon forget.

They came upon a country barbecue where in a grove people were dancing and making merry. A large space had been cleared off in an open spot, and in the center a country string band was furnishing music. On the outskirts men and boys were drinking hard cider from barrels. Many were drunk and the county officers could do nothing with them. The salvationists were almost paralyzed. They had learned while here that Letcher county was one of the worst in the state, having had more feuds and more murders than any of its sister counties, and now the salvationists saw a reason for the trouble.

It was some time before they could make up their minds what to do, but finally they opened services under a large oak tree by the roadside, and soon a crowd gathered.

While members of the corps were exhorting the people assembled, some drunken rowdies began firing off their revolvers near by and the crowd began to scatter. The shooting was so close that the salvationists, fearing to continue their meeting, closed with prayer for the souls of the people and rode away, continuing their trip.

DAMAGE SUITS IN HOPKINS.

Madisonville, Ky., Sept. 26.—Two big damage suits were filed in the Hopkins county circuit court that have created quite a stir in legal circles. On July 4, 1903, J. B. Lindle, who was at that time city marshal at Earlington, Ky., shot and killed Jesse Burton, a country boy who was attending a barbecue at that place.

Lindle arrested the boy, claiming that he was drinking and was disorderly on the picnic grounds. C. B. Tapp, administrator for young Burton, has filed suit against Lindle and his sureties asking damages in the sum of $25,000. Frank Byrum, who was with Burton and who was also arrested at the same time, has also filed suit for the same amount on the same grounds.

He will resign both positions at an early date. Mr. Thomas is a prominent Republican.

The St. Bernard Coal company now controls over half the mineral rights in Hopkins county.

IS INDORSED FOR BALTIMORE BY I. O. O. F.

Baltimore, Md., September 26.—The patriarchs militant attending the sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows visited the naval academy at Annapolis.

It was decided to meet next year in San Francisco.

The sovereign grand lodge committee on finance reported favorably on the plan to erect a $1,000,000 memorial temple in this city, but deemed it inadvisable to connect the name of the sovereign grand lodge with the project. The committee recommends that the enterprise be placed in the hands of Washington lodge No. 1, of this city, known as the "mother lodge" of the order, with authority to solicit subscriptions from other jurisdictions. The report of the committee will be voted on tomorrow.

CURE FOR EPILEPSY.

NEW YORK PHYSICIAN GETS GOOD RESULTS FROM X-RAY TREATMENT.

New York, Sept. 26.—A case of epilepsy, heretofore considered an incurable disease, is responding to X-ray treatment at a hospital in this city. The experimenters do not assert that the cure is certain, but say they are convinced that it is by far the most successful treatment yet attempted. The patient, a girl of 16, has been subject to epileptic attacks, sometimes twice a day, since she was 10 years old. At that time she had a severe attack of diphtheria. Her right arm became partly paralyzed, and epilepsy soon developed.

Until she began to receive the X-ray treatment bromides and other remedies failed to relieve her. The new treatment is being used three times a week, the girl sitting with a powerful ray about two feet above and behind her head. The attacks are now sixteen or seventeen days apart, and her condition is much improved generally.

AFTER GOOD PROPERTY—It is understood that the Ozark hotel of Creal Springs, Ill., formerly owned by Mr. R. P. Stanley, but now owned by Mr. Jacob Weil, of the city, will probably be sold shortly to either Mr. W. C. O'Brien, until recently the stationer at Third and Broadway, or Mr. Louis Clark, the grocer. Mr. O'Brien has an option on it that does not expire until October 5 and it is understood trying to get up a stock company.

SERVICES AT COLORED CHURCH.—There will be interesting services at Burk's Chapel A. M. E. church Sunday. Dollar money rally in connection with an extra effort on the part of the trustees of the church. The members are urgently requested to be present at both morning and night services. The pastor, Rev. S. R. Reid, will preach at both services. Visitors and friends are welcome.

MAY COME AFTER ALL—Mrs. Jefferson Davis, reported very ill at Buffalo, N. Y., is now reported greatly improved, although her condition is still quite serious. Unless Mrs. Davis improves, she will be unable to come to Kentucky and visit Paducah during the Confederate reunion. It will be pleasing news to the ex-Confederates of Paducah, however, to learn that she is better.

RENOVATION NEEDED.

The personalities injected into the state campaign by the Democrats and unfortunately duplicated in some instances by Republicans, are not calculated to help anyone with the better class of people in the state. They appeal to the ignorant and the prejudiced, and this is probably why the Democrats deemed it expedient to launch forth into them. It was a good way to get some of the backsliders back into line. Attacks of this nature never appeal to intelligent people, however, and while neither side is justified, some of the Republicans certainly had obvious provocation. Still, you can't fight the devil with fire. The Lexington Herald, Democratic, says:

"How many citizens who had proposed to vote for Governor Beckham were changed by the response of Major Owens at Somerset to the violent attack made on him at Georgetown? Have these personalities added one whit to the real merits of this canvass or elucidated any doubtful question or been of service to any thoughtful citizen seeking light? The assault of Governor Beckham was undignified and hurtful only to him; the response is as indefensible and of service to Governor Beckham."

The Herald further, in an able discussion of the low down which of the Democrats, James, who are indulging in these culpable personalities are mistaken as to the real temper and disposition of the people of Kentucky. They are both tired and disgusted with denunciation and ostracism; they want respectability and decent regard for the amenities and properties of life and debate and when these vulgar attacks are applauded the applause misleads; it is not from those whose votes will decide this canvass."

It is hoped the campaign will develop more gentility and respectability now that the fire eaters have expended their superfluous ribaldry.

The Republicans of Paducah, from expressions heard everywhere, desire a campaign both in the city and state of which no gentleman may feel ashamed. They do not indorse personal abuse, or such irrational, erratic and indelicate remarks as were made by a man in the recent Republican convention. They did not approve of it then and do not approve of it now, and desire the good people of all parties to know it. The gentleman probably meant well, but evidently overdid himself.

Curtis Jett and his attorneys must know something. They both intimate that there is not much possibility of Jett's hanging. The attorney significantly informed the court when Jett was sentenced that "the sun will rise and set a good many times before Jett is hanged," and Jett himself seems equally as confident his neck will never stretch hemp. Is it possible that they have received assurance that he will be rescued, or pardoned which?

An effort will be made to have Secretary Shaw, of Washington, visit Paducah and make a speech when he comes to Kentucky next month. He will make four or five speeches in the state, and it is hoped by local Republicans that he will come here. The state managers have been written regarding an appointment here, and it is believed will favorably consider the advisability of having Secretary Shaw visit Paducah.

Owensboro is having a hard time with her state fair and there is talk of some of those who guaranteed the state association $20,000, withdrawing their pledges because of the alleged promiscuous and wholesale distribution of passes to hundreds who were not entitled to them. The attendance was not what was expected, and it is probable the fair will be a failure financially.

A vote for the Republican ticket in November will be a vote for progress, economy, and relief from the extravagance that has cost the taxpayers of Paducah hundreds of thousands of dollars in the past few years without any improvements. A vote for the Democratic ticket means a vote for prolonging the agony of wanton waste for the sole benefit of a few officials.

Politics has sunk into insignificance in New York since J. Pierpont Morgan appeared Thursday in a Panama hat—ten days after the date they are supposed to be discarded in Gotham.

Chicago seems to be overrun with up to date hoodlums and swindlers just now. Is it possible Missouri has lost a part of her population lately?

A FAIR EXCHANGE.

The Georgetown Sentinel, referring to Governor Beckham's persistent demand that Colonel Belknap declare before his election as governor what he will do in Caleb Powers' case, asks the pertinent question whether the governor exacted from Judge Robbins a promise to hang Powers before appointing him special judge to try the case.

There would have been just as much propriety in Governor Beckham asking such a question of Judge Robbins as there is in his demanding a campaign pledge from Colonel Belknap.

Robbins' personal selection by Beckham as a member of the Democratic state campaign committee, after his appointment as judge to try Powers, indicated that the governor had entire confidence in his "reliability," even if he did not require him to answer categorically whether he would "hang Powers and damn the Republican party."—Lexington Leader.

WEAK MEN CURED WITHOUT STOMACH DRUGGING; FREE

Simple Home-Method in Possession of Detroit Specialist Does Wonders For Men—Something Entirely New.

SENT FREE TO ALL

There has been discovered by a well-known Detroit specialist a simple, direct and quick home method for the cure of such conditions as sexual weakness or lost manhood, night losses, varicocele, shrunken organs, bladder trouble, diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs, premature, etc., and so effective is it in results on men, even as old as 85, that it should at once recommend itself to every thinking man who suffers in this way. The cure strange to say is accomplished without the use of drugs, salves, ointments or anything of that kind. And yet it is no mechanical device, but one of the truly great discoveries in materia medica that cures without taking anything into the stomach and arouses a glow of warmth, energy and good feeling almost instantly in the oldest person.

The discovery can be relied upon to cure the worst and most long standing cases, and it is especially urged that men who have been unable to find a cure before, as well as those who have not known a happy moment in years, write at once to Doctor H. C. KAYNOR, 775 Smith Building, Detroit, Michigan and you will immediately receive a package of the discovery entire FREE, as well as a scholarly essay on the subject describing all the symptoms in detail, in plain and securely sealed. Consider that nothing is impossible in this century of marvelous achievements, the cures that gave us anti-toxin and X-rays, and that however doubtful you may be because of past failures to find a permanent cure, yet this may prove the very thing you have so long sought. Let your response be prompt. DR. H. C. KAYNOR, 775 Smith Building, Detroit, Mich.

COURT IS NOW OVER

Below the Average Number of Convictions.

Three Boys Go to Reform School—Grand Jury Quits Its Labors.

NEWS FROM OTHER COURTS

CIRCUIT COURT.

This is the last day of circuit court. There have been fourteen convictions at this term, only one being a female. Three boys will be taken to the reform school. If there is no room for them now they will be kept in jail until there is room.

Judge James Campbell has presided most of the term as special judge and has pushed matters. A great deal of business has been transacted but there is still a great deal yet to do.

The convictions are: Ike Stevenson, colored, 21 years for killing Tom Gills; Kid Dovey and Will Mann, colored, ten and 8 years for robbery; Jody Davis, colored, five years for robbery; Laura Smith, colored, was given three years for malicious cutting; W. L. Dowdy, alias Crawford Ivy, three years for cow stealing; Wm. Moore, one year for housebreaking; Roy Ferguson, three years for malicious cutting; Wm. Conner, two years housebreaking; Will Lewis, two years for cow stealing; Robert Rowan, colored, three years, housebreaking; James Yarbrough, one year for stealing a bicycle; Sam Lincoln, one year for selling stolen stove; Edmund Dyson, one year for obtaining money on stolen coat.

The boys ordered to the reform school are: Jesse Edmunds, highway robbery; John Babcock, stealing horse in Marshall county; George Todd, stealing $21 from Mack English, his brother-in-law.

Earl French, colored, charged with malicious striking, was acquitted this morning. French and Jerry Wall were last Tuesday brought in and the jury regularly empaneled for trial. Wall's attorneys entered a demurrer to the indictment which was sustained by Special Judge James Campbell and the case was resubmitted to the grand jury. When the case was called today Attorney Alben Barkley, for French, entered a plea of former trial and acquittal, basing his plea on the dismissal of the first indictment. Special Judge D. A. Cross instructed the jury to find for the defendant which was done and French was acquitted. The case against Wall was not taken up but continued.

An appeal was filed in the case of Robert Hartley who was fined $50 and costs in a magistrate's court for shooting on the public highway.

Pat Hallyman and others filed suit against Mary Donigan and others for $24.87 for sewerage estimates.

In the case of Dr. Elmer E. Davis the motion for new trial was continued. Davis is trying to secure bond.

Trust company against Burnett and American-German national bank against Parish were dismissed.

The motions in the cases of Miller, administrator, against I. O. and Stevenson, administrator, against I. O. and Nichols against I. C., were continued until next term.

Joe Bush was acquitted of the charge of malicious cutting Judge Dave Cross sitting as special judge.

The case against Jewel Maple, for malicious shooting was continued.

A judgment was rendered in favor of E. Futrell against the American-German national bank, ordering the latter to transfer to Mr. Futrell a share of stock in the name of L. C. Radford. The latter disappeared some time ago and it was never known what became of him. Mr. Futrell has charge of the estate and the bank stock could not be transferred to him without an order of court, which is now made.

The case against Jerry Wall, colored, charged with malicious striking, was on trial at press time. The demurrer to the indictment was overruled. Attorney Tom Crice is sitting as a special judge in this case.

Alderman Gus Singleton, for whom an attachment has been issued to compel him to come before the grand jury is ill and unable to appear. He would have come when first summoned but for this reason. As the jury will adjourn this afternoon he will probably be unable to appear this term.

This term of criminal circuit court has been prominent because of the number of special judges. Judge Husbands was ill at the outset and could not sit and Judge James Campbell was selected to occupy the bench. He was interested in several cases and had to step down and out and the judges who have acted besides Judge Campbell are Attorneys D. A. Cross, W. A. Berry and Tom Crice.

POLICE COURT.

Hester Moore, colored, is charged with having stolen an overcoat. She was arrested by Officer Thad Terrell, and the case was continued until Monday.

In the case of an unknown railroad man who declined to give his name when arrested yesterday for a breach of the peace, the bond was declared forfeited.

The warrant against several persons named Irvan for a breach of the peace was filed away.

DEEDS.

Sarah J. Miller to D. G. Murrell, for $750, property in the county.

W. R. Jones to R. O. Jones, for $150, property in Mechanicsburg.

Frank S. Digel deeds to P. J. Beckenbaugh for $150, property in the Worthen addition.

Clint Randle has been appointed and qualified as administrator for Mary F. Randle.

An Irishman stood in front of an electric fan which was going at full speed, with no end of a buzz. After a minute or two he scratched his head and said: "Bedad, I wadn't want to be that squirrel for anything."—Youth.

A Painful Marriage Custom. The penalty among the Hottentots for widows who marry again is a somewhat severe one. It is the rule among these people that, before so marrying, a widow must cut off the joint of a finger and present it to her new husband on the wedding day.

Shadow of the Pot-house. J. Pierpont Morgan says he has no personal property to pay taxes on, as his debts exceed his assets. This is sad. We had always supposed that Mr. Morgan was comfortably fixed by this time.

Nell.—Yes, we're engaged, but I took my time about accepting him. Belle.—Indeed? Waited until he actually proposed did you?—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Threatened With Bright's Disease—Pe-ru-na Restored Him to Health.

O. FRED LINDSTROM, PAST GRAND MASTER I. O. O. F.

O. Fred Lindstrom, Past Grand Master Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Past Chancellor Twin City Lodge, No. 63, Knights of Pythias, also Past Chief Patriarch, Ridgely Encampment, No. 2, writes from 1923 University Ave., St. Paul, Minn. "Peruna has my hearty endorsement. There is no medicine I know of which can compare with it. I contracted a severe cold several years ago, which from neglect developed into urinary trouble, and threatened Bright's disease. As one of my friends was cured of Bright's disease through the use of Peruna I thought I would try it also, and used it faithfully for three and one-half months, when my health was perfect once more. I have never had any trouble since, and therefore think it is but just to give it unlimited praise."—O. Fred Lindstrom.

Catarrhal inflammation of the mucous lining of the kidneys, also called "Bright's disease," maybe either acute or chronic. The acute form produces symptoms of such prominence that the serious nature of the disease is at once suspected, but the chronic variety may come on so gradually and insidiously that its presence is not suspected until after it has fastened itself thoroughly upon its victim.

At the appearance of the first symptoms Peruna should be taken. This remedy strikes at once at the very spot of the disease.

COLLEGE MEN.

QUITE UNIVERSALLY USE GRAPE NUTS.

A lady of Tabor, La. who has six strapping big boys says: "They range from 7 to 19 years and we are living at a college town for the purpose of educating them."

"I have great work before me as you can see and I regard your food Grape Nuts a very valuable assistant for without healthy bodies I know it is impossible to build up strong healthy brains."

"My boys all think they owe much to the food Grape Nuts and on 'field day' or in the football season the athletic ones declare Grape-Nuts is a great strengthener and muscle maker. I have no doubt they are right but it interests me more to know positively that Grape-Nuts makes general good health and restores the wasted brain and nerve matter and keeps my boys normal and strong."

"As for myself I have been troubled since childhood with severe sick headaches which all came from a disordered stomach. There was always trouble about digesting my food and this resulted in violent attacks of headache about once every two weeks. These were so severe that I would be unable to raise my head for 24 hours, then Nature would readjust herself by rest and an entire lack of food. Then I began to use Grape-Nuts for breakfast and the stomach trouble began to fade away. All of the symptoms have gradually changed for the better and the very few headaches I have had since using Grape Nuts have been very light and have not interfered with my regular work, while I am fatter and stronger than ever before. I take great pleasure in telling my friends what this splendid food has done for us not only in the case of my own worn-out system but in keeping up the health of my strapping young giants."

"I must speak of a tribute paid Grape Nuts at our district convention of the Woman's Relief Corps. Two hundred intelligent women were at this meeting and the Department President in her address spoke of the wonderful merits of Grape Nuts to produce brain power." CASE COMPROMISED.

ATTORNEY BARKLEY DID NOT FINE ENGINEER.

Attorney Alben Barkley, the stenographer and examiner, this morning compromised with Robert Bean and the railroad attorneys for contempt in failing to appear at a given date to have his deposition taken in cases brought against the railroad and himself.

Attorney Barkley had been employed to take the depositions and issued a call for all parties to appear on the eighth and Bean failed to show up. A summons was gotten out and he ignored it, completely, and several days ago an attachment was issued and he, Bean, arrested. The examiner was going to try him for contempt but they compromised by allowing previous testimony to go in as his deposition in the late suits.

The suits are those brought by Nichols and Stevenson against the I. C. for damages sustained in the Dawson bridge accident over a year ago. New suits were brought and new depositions had to be taken.

The evidence Bean gave in the other cases will go as his testimony in the new cases.

French Lick and West Baden Springs

In the highlands of Indiana—a two hour ride from Louisville there flow wonderful healing waters, that you'd spend hundreds of dollars to enjoy if they were in Europe

A recent visitor from Philadelphia, who formerly went to Carlsbad every year, said: "I do not see why anyone goes to Europe for medicinal waters. The water is as beneficial, and the scenery and surrounding country, the air and the opportunities for recreation are better; the hotels and all accommodations are much finer at French Lick-West Baden Springs"—and this gentleman is a native of Switzerland.

The splendidly wooded hills with the cool, invigorating air of these highlands where one can enjoy rambles in the depths of the forest, or rides and drives among the numerous bridle paths and roadways, afford pleasure for those who desire rest and quiet; while at the splendid and casinos one can have all the entertainment and pleasures possible at the most fashionable resorts.

ALICE of OLD VINCENNES

By MAURICE THOMPSON

Copyright, 1900, by the BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

The interview thereupon closed abruptly. Hamilton's emissaries had given him a detailed account of M. Roussillon's share in submitting Vincennes to rebel domination, and he was not in the least inclined toward treating him graciously.

"I would suggest to you, M. le Gouverneur, that my official position demands"—M. Roussillon began. But he was fastened upon by two guards, who roughly hustled him aft and bound him so rigidly that he could scarcely move finger or toe.

Hamilton smiled coldly and turned to give some orders to a stalwart, ruddy young officer who in a canoe had just rowed alongside the bateau.

"Captain Farnsworth," he said, acknowledging the military salute, "you will take fifty men and make everything ready for a reconnaissance in the direction of the fort. We will move down the river immediately and choose a place to land. Move lively! We have no time to lose."

In the meantime Beverley slipped away from the fort and made a hurried call upon Alice at Roussillon place. There was not much they could say to each other during the few moments at command. Alice showed very little excitement. Her past experience had fortified her against the alarms of frontier life. But she understood and perfectly appreciated the situation.

"What are you going to do?" Beverley demanded in sheer despair. He was not able to see any gleam of hope out of the blackness which had fallen around him and into his soul.

"What shall you do?" he repeated. "Take the chances of war," she said, smiling gravely. "It will all come out well, no-doubt."

"I hope so, but—I fear not." His face was gray with trouble. "Helm is determined to fight, and that means—"

"Good!" she interrupted, with spirit. "I am so glad of that. I wish I could go to help him. If I were a man I'd love to fight. I think it's just delightful."

"But it is reckless bravado. It is worse than foolishness," said Beverley, not feeling her mood. "What can two or three men do against an army?"

"Fight and die like men," she replied, her whole countenance lighting up. "Be heroic!"

"We will do that, of course. We—I do not fear death, but you—you"—His voice choked him.

A gunshot rang out clear in the distance, and he did not finish speaking. "That's probably the beginning," he added in a moment, extending both hands to her. "Goodby. I must hurry to the fort. Goodby."

She drew a quick breath and turned so white that her lips struck him like a sudden and hard blow. He stood for a second, his arms at full reach, then:

"My God, Alice, I cannot, cannot leave you!" he cried, his voice again breaking huskily.

She made a little movement as if to take hold of his hands, but in an instant she stepped back a pace and said:

"Don't fear about me. I can take care of myself. I'm all right. You'd better return to the fort as quickly as you can. It is your country, your flag, not me, that you must think of now."

She folded her arms and stood boldly erect.

Never before in all his life had he felt such a rebuke. He gave her a straight, strong look in the eyes.

"You are right, Alice," he cried, and rushed from the house to the fort.

She held her rigid attitude for a little while after she heard him shut the front gate of the yard so forcibly that it broke in pieces, then she flung her arms wide, as if to clasp something, and ran to the door, but Beverley was out of sight. She turned and dropped into a chair. Jean came to her out of the next room. His queer little face was pale and pinched, but his jaw was set with the expression of one who has known danger and can meet it somehow.

"Are they going to scalp us?" he half-whispered presently, with a shuddering lift of his distorted shoulders.

Her face was buried in her hands, and she did not answer. Childlike he turned from one question to another inconsequently.

"Where did Papa Roussillon go to?" he next inquired. "Is he going to fight?"

She shook her head. "They'll tear down the fort, won't they?"

If she heard him she did not make any sign.

"They'll kill the captain and lieutenant and get the fine flag that you set so high on the fort, won't they, Alice?"

She lifted her head and gave the cowering hunchback such a stare that he shut his eyes and put up a hand as if afraid of her. Then she impulsively took his little misshapen form in her arms and hugged it passionately. Her bright hair fell all over him, almost hiding him. Mme. Roussillon was lying on a bed in an adjoining room moaning diligently, at intervals handling her rosary and repeating a prayer. The whole town was silent outside.

"Why don't you go get the pretty flag down and hide it before they come?" Jean murmured from within the silken meshes of Alice's hair.

In his small mind the gaudy banner was the most beautiful of all things. Every day since it was set up he had gone to gaze at it as it fluttered against the sky. The men had frequently said in his presence that the enemy would take it down if they captured the fort.

Alice heard his inquisitive voice, but it seemed to come from far off. His words were a part of the strange, wild swirl in her bosom. Beverley's look as he turned and left her now shook every chord of her being. He had gone to his death at her command. How strong and true and brave he was! In her imagination she saw the flag above him, saw him die like a panther at bay, saw the gay rag snatched down and torn to shreds by savage hands.

It was the tragedy of a single moment enacted in a flash of anticipation.

She released Jean so suddenly that he fell to the floor. She remembered what she had said to Beverley on the night of the dance when they were standing under the flag.

"You made it and set it up," he lightly remarked. "You must see that no enemy ever gets possession of it, especially the English."

"I'll take it down and hide it when there's danger of that," she said in the same spirit.

And now she stood there, looking at Jean without seeing him, and repeated the words under her breath.

"I'll take it down and hide it. They shan't have it."

Mme. Roussillon began to call from the other room in a loud, complaining voice, but Alice gave no heed to her querulous demands.

"Stay here, Jean, and take care of Mamma Roussillon," she presently said to the hunchback. "I am going out; I'll be back soon. Don't you dare leave the house while I'm gone. Do you hear?"

She did not wait for his answer, but, snatching a hoodlike fur cap from a peg on the wall, she put it on and hastily left the house.

Down at the fort Helm and Beverley were making ready to resist Hamilton's attack, which, they knew, would not be long deferred. The two heavily charged cannons were planted so as to cover the space in front of the gate, and some loaded muskets were ranged near by ready for use.

"We'll give them one good blast," growled the captain, "before they overpower us!"

Beverley made no response in words, but he was preparing a bit of tinder on the end of a stick with which to fire the cannon. Not far away a little heap of logs was burning in the fort's area.

The British officer, already mentioned as at the head of the line advancing diagonally from the river's bank, halted his men at a distance of 300 yards from the fort and seemed to be taking a deliberately careful survey of what was before him.

"Let 'em come a little nearer, lieutenant," said Helm, his jaw setting itself like a lion's. "When we shoot we want to hit."

He stooped and squinted along his gun.

"When they get to that weedy spot out yonder," he added, "just opposite the little rise in the river bank, we'll turn loose on 'em."

Beverley had arranged his primitive match to suit his fancy and for probably the twentieth time looked critically to the powder in the beveled touchhole of his old cannon. He and Helm were facing the enemy, with their backs to the main area of the stockade, when a well known voice attracted their attention to the rear.

"Any room for a feller o' my size in this here crowded place?" it demanded in a cracked but cheerful tenor. "I'm kind o' outen breath a-runnin' to git here."

They turned about. It was Uncle Jason, with his long rifle on his shoulder and wearing a very important air. He spoke in English, using the backwoods lingo with the ease of long practice.

HAYES' BEECHWOOD EMULSO-HYPO WITH IRON

Makes Fat, Strength, Blood, Bone and Muscle.

If you are tired, broken down, despondent, worn out, pale, losing flesh, have no energy, don't feel like arising in the morning for the day's work, you should take a bottle of this wonderful medicine.

BOGOTA, Miss., March 19, 1903.

Gentlemen: It affords me no little pleasure to testify to the wonderful properties of Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron as it saved my life when the physicians said that I could not get well. After taking six or eight bottles I weighed 150 pounds. That has been ten years and I am still living in fine health. Wishing you success in its sale, I am yours truly, FRED S. DAWSON.

ARLINGTON, Ky., March 18, 1902.

Gentlemen: Having used Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron I cannot commend it too highly to others as a tonic, flesh builder and to give strength, blood and muscle. It is superior to any preparation of which I have any knowledge. I take pleasure in recommending it. Yours truly, PASTOR M. E. CHURCH, South.

Read what the editor of the Southerner, Okolona, Miss., says:

Shoffner-Hayes Medicine Co., Paducah, Ky. In 1901 my mother commenced taking Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron, when the doctors said her lungs were so badly involved that she would not likely be alive but a few weeks. It improved her so rapidly that she was soon in good health for one of her years. I wish you the success you deserve with your Beechwood Emulso.

Yours truly, AARON G. DAVIS.

Suffered six years with a cough that threatened Consumption. Entirely cured by Beechwood Emulso-Hypo.

MAYFIELD, Ky., May 25, 1901.

Shoffner-Hayes Medicine Co., Paducah, Ky. Dear Sirs: I suffered for six years with a cough that threatened Consumption. This spring I took six bottles of Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo and it cured my cough, and I think I am entirely well. Yours truly, MRS. W. H. STEWART.
